CONNECTING THE YIN AND YANG

The objective of this conference is to better enable operation leaders and CEOs/Entrepreneurs to communicate more effectively to enhance business opportunities.

We are looking for speakers who can incorporate their specialty in a focus on enhancing the communication within their space to better the connection between the entrepreneur and the operation leaders.

For example, one breakout session: An attorney speaking on how to improve business legal stature through internal operations. The approach to process and discussion with the entrepreneur and the operations team.

Key-Note

We are looking for a key-note speaker interested in delivering a riveting yet educational approach to internal operational connections.

No specific industry or field requirements.

2 (1 hour sessions)

Breakout

Breakout speakers will have the opportunity to speak to the group for a 1-2 hour session on their topic. There will be optimal time for presentation, discussion and Q&As.

Any industry to apply.

1 (1 -2 hour session)

Workshop

We are in search of workshop presenters to deliver an educational approach to our audience. Creating a training session in which the audience will learn "how-to" do something will be the focus of this workshop presentation.

1 (2 hour workshop)

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

The target audience is mainly comprised of operational team leaders and a mix of CEOs.

You can expect an audience from all across the United States, in numerous industries with multivariate skill sets.

An audience that is eager to learn and improve their entrepreneur and operations connections.
